

Who are the top 10 artists that have the highest number of albums, and how many albums do they have?

Iron Maiden leads the chart with 21 albums, followed by Led Zeppelin with 14 albums. This indicates a significant contribution by these artists to the music library, reflecting their prolific output and popularity.

What are the top 5 genres with the most tracks, and how many tracks are in each genre?

Rock is the dominant genre with 1,297 tracks, far surpassing the next closest genres like Latin and Metal. This highlights the extensive collection of rock music, suggesting its high demand and broad appeal.

Which employees are assigned to the most customers, and how many customers are they assigned to?

Jane Peacock is assigned the highest number of customers at 21, followed by Margaret Park with 20, and Steve Johnson with 18. This shows that these employees are managing a substantial portion of the customer base, indicating their possible efficiency and importance in customer relations within the company.

Who are the top 5 customers by sales, and what is their total amount?

Helena Holý tops the list with total sales of 49.62, followed by Richard Cunningham with 47.62. These customers have made significant purchases, indicating their value and engagement with the music library.

